

Life is about learning. Transform yours with higher education.

Alleghany County Public Schools and University of Phoenix are dedicated to building the future of how people learn and nurturing teachers and staff to reach their fullest potential. That's why we've teamed up to offer you special educational benefits and access to an innovative way to learn.

Your exclusive benefits

To help you reach your goals, all Alleghany County Public Schools teachers and staff now receive a 10 percent tuition savings on degree programs, certificate programs, and individual courses at University of Phoenix. Additionally, application fees will be waived for all Alleghany County Public Schools teachers and staff.

Discover the University of Phoenix difference

- Our practitioner faculty numbers more than 3,000.
- Averaging more than 12 years of experience in P-12 education, our instructors are seasoned teachers, administrators, department chairs and curriculum developers.
- Importantly, all instructors must hold a current educator certification and have the appropriate academic and career background to teach specific coursework as defined by University standards.

Continuing Teacher Education Courses

Whether you're aiming for recertification, to garner endorsements or to grow professionally, University of Phoenix offers Continuing Education courses online and at select campus locations to meet the specific goals of educators.
