

Teaching Experience: Allowable Credit

Teaching experience may be granted by the school board at the discretion of the superintendent for the following:

1. Teaching in public schools in the state and out of the state;
2. Teaching in accredited institutions of higher learning in and out of the state;
3. Teaching in school operated on military installations, supported by federal tax funds, and for which academic credit is accepted for admission to the public schools in Virginia;
4. Teaching in public resident schools, such as the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind;
5. Teachers in the field of vocational education, where the requirement calls for occupational work experience beyond the apprenticeship level, may be allowed credit for one (1) year of teaching experience for each two (2) years of work experience; and
6. For teaching in accredited private schools and in private schools for which teachers receive credit under the provisions of the Virginia Retirement System.
